JANA MANA

(KONKANI FILM)

Shobha hails from a poor family, but she excels in her studies as well as extra-curricular activities. Satish is the son of a rich personage of that town. Satish and Shobha meet each other as competitors in an inter-collegiate debate. Satish falls at once in love with her for her simple and charming manners.

Shobha's friend Lalitha encourages her to develop friendship with Satish. Satish on his part tries his best to win Shobha's heart. He seeks the help and assistance of his domestic servant jannu in furthering his love for Shobha.

Days pass and both Shobha and Satish are mutually in deep love. Unfortunately their youthful passing forces them to come together and Shobha becomes pregnant. On knowing this Satish is at first at his wits' end. Then he decides to have Shobha as his wife through a register marriage. But Shobha's minor age comes in the way as obstacle. After wards.....

Did Satish finally get married to his heart-throb Shobha? Did his parents give their consent to his marrying Shobha? How did Shobha's parents manage to raise the dowry amount of Rs. 50,000 demanded by Satish's father? Was the wedded life of Shobha and Satish full of domestic bliss? How was it that Satish became addicted to liquor? Why did Shobha's father close the door upon Shobha for ever ;... And then——

Who saved Shobha from misery and how?

What provoked Driver John and Servant jannu to take revenge?
